Requirements For This Application

- 1) The deadline for submission is 16 September 2022. No application received after that date will be considered for any future class.
- 2) You must answer all questions on this application truthfully and in your own handwriting.
- 3) If accepted into ICT, you must be able to provide your own reliable accommodation in Cape Town and transport to and from ICT or your job each day for the entirety of the course.
- 4) You must include a clear photocopy of your ID and proof of your COVID-19 vaccination with this application. Your application will not be considered without both.

Filling out this application does NOT guarantee your acceptance to Infinity Culinary Training (ICT). All information provided will be kept confidential among ICT employees and its Board of Directors.

To Submit This Application From Cape Town

You must hand-deliver this completed application to:

Woolworths Building, 34 Adderley Street, Cape Town 8000

We are located across the street from the Cape Town Terminus, on the corner of Adderley Street and Strand Street. The hours of drop off are Monday-Saturday 07:00-17:00.

You must go only to THE STAFF ENTRANCE OF THE BUILDING, knock on the metal door, and give your application to the person at security.

In September, you will receive a phone call with a date and time for your 1st interview.

To Submit This Application From Outside of Cape Town

If you stay over 75km from Cape Town, you may email this application to: applications@ictchefs.org. Then you must bring this original application and attachments with you to your first interview.

You must be prepared to move to Cape Town for your interviews and possible acceptance to ICT.

No submissions from people within 75km of Cape Town will be accepted via email.

Part 1: Getting to Know ICT

*Before you attend your first interview, it is important that you to get to know a little bit about ICT.
You must understand the seriousness of the business culture that we train chefs for.*

Tick each box that you think is correct.

1) Many people drink alcohol, socially and on special occasions. Drinking is a bad practice when it comes to the demands and long hours of being a chef. Therefore, no amount of drinking alcohol is permitted while I am an ICT student, including weekends, time off, or when I am at home.

TRUE FALSE

2) Even though the ICT training will require all of my time and attention, I'll still be able to have my usual friends and do most of the things I used to do before attending ICT.

TRUE FALSE

3) Since ICT is free, they also give their students whatever they want. If I don't have transport money, or a phone, or money for data and airtime, ICT will give me those things.

TRUE FALSE

4) The business world is strict about timekeeping. No one is interested in excuses like late taxis, load shedding, or personal issues at home. As training for this world, ICT requires 100% on-time attendance – every single day – from all students.

TRUE FALSE

5) Attending ICT is a personal decision to change my life for the better. The program will be very challenging. I will have to face many personal challenges in order to grow. I will have to face many fears, overcome some negative habits, and question some of my beliefs in order to succeed.

TRUE FALSE

6) ICT guarantees me a job. Even if I quit a job or get fired, ICT will always get me another one.

TRUE FALSE

7) ICT is not a quick fix to my financial problems. It takes many years of hard work, dedication, and climbing the ladder to become a respected, well-paid chef. Therefore, if I want to grow my career, I must always do my best, work my hardest, put in very long hours, and never complain.

TRUE FALSE

8) On 27 October, 2017, ICT made a Facebook post on:

Nondyebo Mgoboza

ICT's Community Outreach

The Graduation of Class 25
