NB!
Submitting this application, or attending any interview,
does NOT guarantee your acceptance to ICT.

Part 1: Getting to Know ICT

Before you attend your first interview, it is important that you to get to know a little bit about ICT. You must understand the seriousness of the business culture that we train chefs for.

Tick each box that you think is correct.

1) ICT's primary mission is to provide training for people who have never worked or who have very limited work experience. If a person has been able to repeatedly find a job, or a person has had over three months of previous hospitality training, there is a very low chance of being accepted to ICT.

TRUE

FALSE

2) Many people drink alcohol occasionally and on special occasions. Drinking is a bad practice when it comes to being a professional chef. Therefore, no amount of drinking alcohol is permitted while I am an ICT student, including weekends, time off, or when I am at home.

TRUE

FALSE

3) Even though the ICT training will require all of my time and attention, I will still be able to have my usual friends and do most of the usual things I did before attending ICT.

TRUE

FALSE

4) Since ICT is free, they also give their students whatever they want. If I don't have transport money, or a phone, or money for data and airtime, ICT will give me those things.

TRUE

FALSE

5) The professional world is strict about timekeeping. Businesspeople are not interested in excuses like late taxis, load shedding, or personal issues at home. As training for the business world, ICT requires 100% on-time attendance – every single day – from all students.

TRUE

FALSE

6) Attending ICT is a personal decision to change my life for the better. The program will be very challenging. In order to grow and to succeed, I will have to face many personal challenges, face many fears, overcome some negative habits, and possibly question some of my beliefs.

TRUE

FALSE

7) ICT guarantees me a job. Even if I quit a job or get fired, ICT will always get me another one.

TRUE

FALSE

8) ICT is not a quick fix to my financial problems. It takes many years of hard work, dedication, and climbing the ladder to become a respected, well-paid chef. Therefore, if I want to grow my career, I must always do my best, work my hardest, and put in very long hours. I also MUST learn to make a personal budget and spend my money correctly.

Having a criminal record does not automatically disqualify you from being admitted to ICT.
We encourage you to apply even if you have a criminal record.

11) Read the paragraph below very carefully, then answer the QUESTION that follows.

Working in a professional kitchen requires long, hard hours – working nights, weekends and public holidays. It requires being fast on your feet. It requires learning new forms of communication. It requires paying attention to every detail. It requires opening your mind to new cultures. It requires adopting a PROFESSIONAL MINDSET. It requires never gossiping. Working in a pro kitchen will require a 100% CHANGE OF LIFESTYLE from what you are currently used to. Working in a pro kitchen is NOT for everyone. Many people are better suited to other jobs or careers.

QUESTION: Aside from wanting a job and wanting to earn money, WHY DO YOU THINK THE PROFESSIONAL KITCHEN IS THE BEST PLACE FOR YOU AT THIS TIME IN YOUR LIFE?

12) What else is important for ICT to know about you? Do NOT leave this section blank.

Part 4: Your Commitment

8.

Please think carefully about each of the promises below. They are your word of honour.

They must be kept by every ICT student each and every day.

- 1) Do you promise to be in class Monday through Friday, 7:00 am to 4:30 pm, and one day each weekend, either Saturday or Sunday? YES NO
- 2) Do you promise to be on-time for class – never late – every single day? YES NO
- 3) Do you promise to be able to work day shifts, night shifts, and shifts on weekends and public holidays? Do you understand that there are NEVER DECEMBER HOLIDAYS in the hospitality industry? YES NO
- 4) Do you promise to be available to work in a Cape Town restaurant or hotel for a minimum of one year after graduating from ICT? YES NO
- 5) Since you will earn no money for at least the first 4 months of attending ICT, do you promise to always have A) transport money to and from class and your work placement, and B) airtime and data on your phone? YES NO
- 6) Do you promise to give 110% of your energy and commitment to your training? This means always trying your hardest and completing all tasks with a positive attitude. YES NO
- 7) Are you 100% clear that attending ICT is a personal decision to change your life, and that the program will be personally challenging, and that you will be required to face many of your fears and overcome some life-long habits in order to succeed? YES NO

Part 5: Your Agreement

I understand that ICT is not a quick fix to my financial problems. ICT provides training for entry-level positions into the professional kitchen. I understand that it takes many years of hard work and dedication to become a respected chef. I know that I will be starting at the bottom in any job and that I must be willing to always be honest and do my best in order to work my way up.
